

Daily Business Report-May 7, 2021

CaseyGerry law firm elevates Srinivas Hanumadass to partner

Expanding its partnership, CaseyGerry – a San Diego-based personal injury and complex litigation law firm – has promoted Srinivas Hanumadass to partner.

Hanumadass, who concentrates his practice on serious personal injury, is a “much-welcomed addition to our growing partnership,” said CaseyGerry’s managing partner, David S. Casey, Jr. “Since joining our firm as an associate attorney in 2015, he has demonstrated an unwavering dedication to his clients and our firm, attaining numerous multi-million results. He is also a proactive community leader and has focused his efforts on promoting diversity in the legal profession.”

He served two terms as president of the South Asian Bar Association, one term as vice president of the San Diego County Bar Association and was past scholarship committee chair of the Lawyers Club of San Diego. Currently, he is a member of the board of directors and a PAC board member for the Consumer Attorneys of California and is a member of the American Association of Justice’s diversity, minority caucus and membership oversight committees.

A graduate of the American Association for Justice’s Leadership Academy, he is also a recent recipient of the “Outstanding Service to Community Award” from the Thomas Jefferson School of Law (TJSL).